BROWNE---JORDAN WEDDING PARTY

One of the leading society events of the week under review was the wedding of Mr. H. N. Browne and Miss Mattie Jordan, which took place at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, in Makaweli, Thursday evening.

The ceremony was performed beneath a floral bower on the lanai, Rev. C. D. Millikin officiating. Mr. W. K. Schultze gave the bride away. H. S. Truscott officiated as best man, and Mrs. Alexander Brodie was matron of honor. Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Aldrich were also members of the bridal party. Misses Aldrich and Truby Truscott were the flower girls.

The wedding march was played by Douglas Baldwin. Mrs. Truscott sang a solo, being accompanied by Mrs. Brodie.

After the ceremony, refreshments were served and the various features of the evening enjoyed. In the meanwhile, the happy principals in the affair slipped away for parts unknown.

The weather was exceedingly bad during the evening, interfering with the plans of many of those invited to attend. Lightning flashed, thunder rolled and rain came down in torrents. However, there was an offset in the beauty of the scene, the impressiveness of the ceremonies and the pleasures of the evening enjoyed by all in attendance.

POLICE MAY HAVE WAIMEA THIEVES

The Waimea police rounded up a couple of Chinamen Sunday night whom they believe to be the parties responsible for recent thievery in that neighborhood. Each of the men had a pistol and a dagger, and also a bunch of keys, among which were skeleton keys.

The Chinamen are old opium fiends, and the police had been wondering for sometime how they made a living.

No loot has been discovered, but it is figured that when the Chinamen have been without their "sleep medicine" in the jail for a day or two, they will tell something of their doings, and perhaps the whereabouts of their plunder.

THE OU CLUB HAS A BRIDGE EVENING

The Ou Club, Lihue, had one of its most successful and pleasant bridge parties last Friday evening. The committees were most thorough in their arrangement plans, the affair taking place in the Boarding House.

Miss Ommann was the successful competitor for the ladies' first prize; Miss Elsie Wilcox won the second prize, and Miss Booge won handily in the race for the "consolation."

The first gentlemen's prize was won by Judge Charles S. Dole, Frank Morrow annexed the second and W. C. Avery, of the High School, was the proud possessor of the "consolation" at last accounts.

Delightful refreshments were served, and dancing brought the evening to a close.

Oleander Kills Colt

A young colt, belonging to Harrison Rice, Lihue, died Sunday morning and investigation showed that the cause was eating oleander, which had been cut from the hedge and thrown on a pile to be burned later. The circumstance is mentioned as a caution to others who may have oleander growing on their premises.

KOLOA HAS SOME GAMBLING CASES

They have had a busy time with gamblers and gambling institutions in the Koloa court in the past few days. The first bunch hauled up consisted of six Japanese, out of whom the court collected $72 and costs.

Nishii, the Japanese owing the house in which the game was located, was arrested and charged with running a gambling establishment. To this charge he entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25 and costs.

Another Japanese named Honzaki, residing at Kukuila, was arrested for running his billiard hall on Sunday. There were extenuating circumstances in this case, however, the Japanese being a hard worker, having only Sunday to look after his amusement place and being ignorant of the law. He was cautioned to sin no more and sentenced was suspended.

ANNUAL MEETING OF SUGAR LEADERS

The Hawaiian sugar planters met in Honolulu last Tuesday for their annual session, and discussed a great many matters of interest. The following qualified as officers for the new year: J. M. Dowsett, president; A. W. T. Bottomly, vice president; W. O. Smith, secretary and treasurer; L. J. Warren, assistant secretary and treasurer; J. W. Waldron, auditor.

Kauai plantation men in attendance were: George N. Wilcox, B. D. Baldwin, C. H. Wilcox, E. Cropp, G. P. Wilcox, Geo. R. Ewart and Geo. R. Ewart, Jr.

The banquet feature, which had been kept up for many years, was omitted from the program on account of the war in Europe.

ENJOYABLE CARD PARTY AT ELEELE

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Silva, Eleele, very pleasantly entertained a large party of friends at cards Saturday evening, the occasion being the tenth anniversary of their wedding. Sixty invitations had been issued.

Pedro was the game. Tables began on the long, front verandah, ran through the dining hall and extended the entire length of the rear lanai. All the way throughout, the place was profusely decorated, the lanais being walled in, as it were, with palm branches, while ferns were interspersed at appropriate intervals.

As though to emphasize the saying that you can never tell how the cards may run, the two first prizes went to a gentleman and his wife—Mr. and Mrs. Rath, of Lawai.

Heavy advertising leaving such meager space for write-ups of every kind at this season, a complete account of this elegant and much enjoyed function must be omitted. It may be said, in general, however, that all present had a most delightful evening, and regretted very much when the hour for dispersing came.

WORKING OUT NEW RAILWAY PLANS

Manager Hans Isenberg, of Lihue Plantation, went to Honolulu Saturday night and yesterday a meeting of the directors of the company was held there at which the proposition for a railroad from Nawiliwili to the Kawaihau district was discussed.

Last week the proposals of the Lihue Plantation and the Government, respectively, on the proposed line differed widely on important points. The Governor has asserted his disposition to encourage the project, but points out that the

BIG CHRISTMAS GARDEN ISLAND

The beautiful colored cover for the big holiday number of THE GARDEN ISLAND, which will be issued December 22 (in time for the mail leaving that day), has arrived and the matter for the paper is being assembled as rapidly as possible.

The paper will undoubtedly be the biggest and most beautiful souvenir of its kind ever gotten out on this island; and will be the finest ever offered Kauai people for mailing to friends abroad.

Owing to the uncertainty at the time as to the number of papers that might be required it now seems likely that too few covers were ordered; and that the entire issue will be sold out long before December 22.

A book has been opened in this office in which orders for copies of the big holiday number are being entered as they come in; and these orders will be filled in rotation as they are originally set down until the papers are exhausted. Advance orders may be sent in either by letter or telephone. In either case, however, the person booking the order should state definitely the number of papers wanted.

The price of the beautiful holiday number will be fifteen cents, which will just about cover the expense of getting it out. It will not be possible to make any reduction for quantities.

A brief history concerning this holiday issue of THE GARDEN ISLAND will bear repetition. A little extra "splurge" in the way of features had been planned for the issue just before Christmas, when the Hawaii Promotion Committee started its campaign for a "Hawaii Paper Day", or a day when all the papers of the group should issue numbers carrying write-ups of their respective sections of the Islands. To this request of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, THE GARDEN ISLAND replied that it was already planning a large paper for December 22, so could not go in on the "Hawaii Paper Day" proposition. "All right", replied the committee, "suppose you make your issue of December 22 your 'Hawaii Paper Day' number."

And so we will. It will be a big paper of and for Kauai, for her people and her industries; and it is hoped that it may go to all parts of the Islands and many parts of the world.

law stands in the way of making concessions or promises in regard to renewals of leases. It seems to be conceded that the executive is right on the point.

In the meanwhile it is to be noted that the directorate of Lihue Plantation is considering the matter in a public-spirited way, and that there still seem chances of a satisfactory arrangement eventually being made.

It is not known here what effect the appearance of Colonel Spalding in the field with a proposal to build a cannery for the homesteaders may have on railway negotiations.
